

Federalism in Nepal: Challenges and Opportunities is a collection of research papers prepared by Nepal's renowned experts and academicians. The research papers analyze possible challenges to the process of federalizing Nepal's unitary state structure, and present the possible opportunities which the federal system can create for Nepal.

The papers analyze the challenges and opportunities of federalism from economic, socio-cultural, geographical, demographic, and political perspectives. The research papers are prepared by Dr. Shanker Sharma, Prof. Dilli Ram Dahal, Bal Krishna Mabohang, Prof. Pitambar Sharma, and Prof. Krishna Khanal respectively.

The book also contains the report of the seminar in which the research papers were presented among the senior leaders of Nepal's different major political parties. The seminar was organized by National Peace Campaign (NPC) in Pokhara.